December 10, 2016 Meeting Minutes

December was the Christmas Party, with no formal meeting, and therefore no minutes.

KCXO Road Crew in the Final Stretch

Crews are finally paving the last curve of the connector that goes to League Line Road and Interstate 45. This will terminate on Carl Pickering Memorial Drive and end at the Airport Terminal Building.

Rumor has it that this is the same crew that built Beltway 8 as a near lifetime project.

GALAXY EXPANDS WITH 3rd & 4th HANGARS

Galaxy's original footprint was on a 9 acre plot on CXO's South side. They are now in an expansion mode and have finished an additional 9 acres of paved ramp area. Their original two hangars were each 39,000 Sq Ft. The next two will be slightly smaller—the first of which (above left) is about to complete its roof. The second one's frame is now rising off the ramp floor (below left). There is still room for two more hangars this size, or another 39,000 sq ft building.

Galaxy now hangars 35 aircraft, with 20 of those which are corporate jets or turboprops. They just closed out the 2016 year with over 1.2 million gallons of fuel sold.

Phillips 66 recently released a video that they will use in-house to describe the Young Eagle Rebate Policy. The filming crew was here for our October YE Event.

You can get a $1.00 rebate per gallon for fuel used at one of our YE Fly-Days. You can apply online—just Google YE Rebate, or go to EAA.org and search for the same. Rules are simple:

1. Volunteer pilot must be a licensed pilot and an EAA member.
2. The $1.00 per gallon rebate applies only to Phillips 66 Aviation avgas (It does not include jet fuel, motor fuel, or other fuel brands.)
3. Avgas must be purchased at a Phillips 66 FBO and Phillips 66 Aviation Credit Card must be used.
4. Young Eagles flight can take place at any time during the calendar year. Volunteer pilot must provide a receipt or a copy of the receipt and complete the Young Eagles rebate submission form.

The BW tree glowed with Christmas Cheer

EAA Chapter 302 held their annual Christmas Party upstairs at the Black Walnut Restaurant Saturday night, December 10th, from 6 to 9 PM. There were 80 members present, many of whom brought gifts for the "Toys for Tots" again. Appetizers came first, then a dinner with two entree choices, followed by the White Elephant gift exchange.
